PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2, 1865. Scarcely anything so well presents the feeling of the Church and people with ref-erence to the ultimate success and present necessity for labor, as the fact developed in the work of the United States Christian Commission during the past year. At the late annual meeting of the Commission in Washington, at which over one hundred members were present, these facts were presented with peculiar power and earnestness, in various ways, by delegates representing the home and field work of the Commission, in all its phases. The third Annual Report of the Commission was formally adopted, and the financial exhibitit, showing the work for the past year, were presented, and received the most unqualified admiration of all who examined them.

The Report shows that the commission has received in 1864 contributions to the value of $2,862,347.86; in 1863, $916,337.

A fitting conclusion to the visit of the Commission to Washington was furnished by the public anniversary which was held in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Sabbath evening, the 29th of Jantrees on Sacostin evening, the 22th of sac-nary. Such a meeting was probably sel-dom, if over, convened on this continent, Long before the hour for opening had ar-rived, every available spot of room was occupied, and thousands vainly strove for

His rekens of the change which had come over mac, General Patrick. His testi-mony to the work of the Com-mission was decided and unhesitating in its aperobation. Coming from such a source it possesses a value which cannot be over-estimated. His peroration—in al-lusion to the Hall in which the meeting was being held, and in connection with the prospect of a speedy peace—thrilled the audience through. His quotation of the words of the 122d Psalm, in direct ap-

C., which powerfully affected the hearers, was then made by Mr. W. D. Richardson, correspondent of the New York Tribune, who, six weeks before, had succeeded in escaping after a captivity of twenty months. Senstor Foster, of lonnecticut was the last speaker.

The meeting, which continued until nearly midnight, was in every respect an entire success, and cannot fail of exciting a great interest in the Commission's work. A second anniversary was held on Tues day evening, Jan. 31, in Philadelphia, the nead-quarters of the Commission. The Academy of Music, one of the largest halls in the country, was densely thronged, and the meeting was presided over by the chairman of the Commission, Mr. George H.

Smart.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. Alexander Reed, of Philadelphia, Rev. B W. Chidiaw, of Cincinnati, Gen Fisk, Rev. Dr. Newton, of Philadelphia, Joseph Story of Boston, Rev. Edward Hawes, of Philadelphi \ Chaplain McCabe and Gen. Gregory. This meeting was of equal interest with the oue in Washington, a very large number of delegates returning from the Washing-ton Convention being present.

Let us pray that God's favor may richly decond upon the Commission; as after these great gatherings it commences again its faithful service in so many ways. Its third year gone; its noble record and ac-count rendered, with an empty treasury and such a work in prospect as is beyond comparison in vastness and importance, who shall say that God's blessing will not continue to reaton itse in the past, and yet more abundantly?—Correspondence Neto York Evangelist.

the men who are fighting our battles—can not but feel in every part the renewed influence which must go forth from ruch a gathering and for such a cause.

A fitting conclusion to the visit of the Commission to Washington was furnished to woll the renewed in the signed petition same to him and said:
"We have signed petition same to him and said:
"We have signed petitions in favor of the volunteer system. We dared not refuse, but we are heartily against it, and we beg you to go ahead and kill it!" And these rich, weak men gave large sums of money to forward the passage of the very measure against which they had petitioned.

It is likely the bill will be made, to some extent, a party measure; and if so, will of course be carried. Brooklyn may be left out-the fire department there being loss objectionable than here.
